14th April 1932

Under Secretary
Kenya Department
Colonial Office

Sir,

I have had a claim from the Crown Agent in respect of my wife's passage from England on my promotion to Kenya.

I am entitled to 1st class passage travelling second class to Kenya the fares will be 1st class by about £6 or £7 and I respectfully ask that I should be credited with this amount and so reduce London-Kenya part of the journey and so reduce charge against me in respect of the 1st class of the journey.

With regard to the £10 advanced by the Government on my promotion to Kenya I believe that a considerable part was expended on travelling to London.

My wife's passage and other expenses
I travelled 3rd class which was less than 1st class. The Government of the Kenya distinct from my wife's, the proportion being I shall have further expenses before I get to board, though I have been as economical as possible there is another matter to which I would refer.

I shall be glad to hear from you from the Kenya Department.

DOWLING STREET,

16 May, 1923.

Sir,

I have the honour to transmit to you, for your information, the accompanying copy of a letter from Mr. P. A. McIlwaine, Crown Counsel, dated the 14th of April, on the subject of certain expenses incurred during his journey from St. Lucia to East Africa. It was not possible to communicate with him on the points raised in his letter before his departure from this country.

2. Of the sum of £53.6.8 which has been recovered by the Crown Agents for the Colonies, £23.6.8 was claimed in respect of the difference between the amount actually spent on his own and his wife's passages from St. Lucia to this country and the cost of one and a half first class tickets for the journey. The remaining £30 represented the sum advanced to him by the Government of St. Lucia towards incidental expenses on the voyage.

3. I may observe in this connection that I am at present considering the general question of the grant of family passage allowance to officers transferred to Tropical Africa from other parts of the Empire when the journey involves their travelling via this country.

THE OFFICER ADMINISTERING THE GOVERNMENT OF KENYA.

In the present case it is clear that Mr. McElwaine may reasonably have expected that he would receive an allowance of half the cost of his wife's passage for the whole journey from St. Lucia to Mombasa, and I agree to his being refunded the difference between the sum actually spent on his own and his wife's passage tickets from England to East Africa, and one and a half times the cost of a first class passage, provided that this difference does not exceed £25.0.0.

4. Mr. McElwaine is not entitled to any payment on account of incidental expenses incurred on the voyage, and the sum of £10 which was advanced to him on this account, and which forms part of the sum recovered by the Crown Agents, must be retained by the Government. As regards the enquiry in the last paragraph of his letter, as to the cost of the transport of his motor-bicycle, I regret that I cannot authorise this being defrayed from Government funds.

5. I enclose also a copy of a further letter from Mr. McElwaine, dated the 17th of April, in which he applies for an extension of the leave due to him from St. Lucia, until the day before his departure for East Africa. I have already enquired of the Governor of the Windward Islands what salary if any may be granted to Mr. McElwaine during the extension of his leave from St. Lucia funds; and in the meantime he will be regarded as having been granted an extension of leave without salary from the 13th to the 16th of April, both days included.

6. I should be glad if you would cause Mr. McElwaine to be informed in the sense of the preceding paragraphs

In the present case it is clear that Mr. McElwaine may reasonably have expected that he would receive an allowance of half the cost of his wife's passage for the whole journey from St. Lucia to Zombasa, and I agree to his being refunded the difference between the sum actually spent on his own and his wife's passage tickets from England to East Africa, and one and a half times the cost of a first class passage, provided that this difference does not exceed £22.5.0.

The first part of the report is a general statement of the purpose and scope of the investigation. It is followed by a description of the methods used in the study. The results of the investigation are then presented in a series of tables and figures. The final part of the report is a discussion of the findings and their implications.

The second part of the report is a detailed description of the methods used in the study. This includes a description of the subjects, the experimental design, and the procedures used to collect and analyze the data. The methods section is followed by a description of the results of the study. The results are presented in a series of tables and figures. The final part of the report is a discussion of the findings and their implications.
 The discussion section discusses the results of the study in relation to the literature and offers suggestions for further research. The report concludes with a summary of the findings and a list of references.
