As regards 16338, the U.S. will no doubt send a copy to the British P.S., but I am sure that we should be allowed to send a copy to the Department of the Interior and a copy of the same with reference to the plot in question to the proper authorities.

Dear Evans,

I enclose you a copy of a letter which we have received from the Officer Administering the Government of East Africa, which you will see gives the terms of a resolution addressed to the Prime Minister.

Yours sincerely,

H. C. I.

East Africa.
