X Mr. Ballantyne said that

Mr. Ballantyne said yesterday that Mr. Green had been having interviews with various Labour men - eg. Mr. Henderson - & that he

X also some of the more extreme men.

that questions might be asked in the House on the payment of Mr. Green's expenses - the view being apparently that Mr. Green at least should afford to pay his own & should be treated in this respect like the other & delegates from Kenya, whose passages are paid by Govt. of Kenya & who will receive an allowance while they are here.

Mr. Delamere's letter on this point cannot be any reasonable interpretation in the context as taken to mean more than that Mr. Green should attend meetings here with the other delegates & hear all that they hear.

Mr. Green is a man of no standing or importance the history of the matter, I gather, is that first a man named Bailliolone (a press reporter) writes to come & Mr. Delamere that if Mr. Bailliolone will come, he Mr. Delamere will not attend any meeting at T.O. at which Mr.
Bailliolone was present
Mr. Green was then put forward in this is represent local labour, whether that may amount to in Kenya.

You asked Dr Kilgus about this 2nd of paying for the 1952 - he was in a hurry at the time, but he said that he was definitely opposed to the idea.

See below

In the delegation will cost Kenya a pretty heavy sum of money whether if the expenses of the European was paid by the Govt later Dr Kilgus advised that a small amount of money made it impossible for him to go, that he was unable to do the delegation, & could not be paid for. But I gathered that he would not accept money for himself, the part only for the fact, as he understands the cost of the European's passage has come out of his own pocket.

When the time comes, I think I will be a couple of "bean pests" at Kenya's expense. After all, a Green represents some
