Indian Representative, Repv. Council

Note that Indians in Fiji are entitled to elect two members of local Repv. Council & consider Indians in E.A. should be allowed right of free election of representatives to Repv. Council

Western Pacific Dept.

Is the statement as to Fiji correct, please?

And is there any special reason for granting electoral representation to Indians in Fiji, if the statement is true?

If so subject is a long one involved one, perhaps I might come + speak with you about it.

I am afraid that has made that two M.L.C.s to be elected by the Indian community are to be substituted for the one now existing before 1925 existing. There are 7 M.L.C.s at present in the Indian community.

Last subsequent Paper:

No. 2916

... course. This comes of the number of the workers which now 60000 are against 5000
which make the time ripe for their advance.

The real issue is the hope that Indian popular opinion which is much against Tirpati at present, may be placated and induced to agree to an exemption of import duty, which is considered essential to save the sugar industry.

By all means let us talk over

16.1.20

To Mr. Bradbury

- (1) Discussed with Mr. G. P. Nair in Tirpati is entirely ignorant from his point whether the Indians are men for plantation labour - in soil they are mostly Hindus but in fact they are mostly Moslems & are an inferior class. However understand that the Indian labour is diligent was not supported by P.C. or any Indian Association. The P.C. got rid of it voluntarily in the mean given above.
- (2) of course, the Indians - who mostly not members the Congress is also in fact do not bear equal responsibility with the Moslem community.

(4) There is no reason at all to order any discussion of 86
the subject with the Assoz.

I agree. The Tigr. Hindu community is of all castes homogeneous & the elected Hindus, like myself cannot be castes or not, and it all counts a representation.

As proposed I - will take the paper & to bring up, when the Indian in a position to discuss the Indian question friendly with him

January 16th. 1920.

The Under Secretary of State,
Colonial Office, S.W.1.

Sir,

My Association notes with gratification that, by an alteration which has been made in the constitution of the Fiji Islands, Indians are entitled to elect two members of the Local Legislative Council.

2. My Association is thereby encouraged to renew its representation that an early opportunity should be taken to amend the constitution~~s~~ of British East Africa in order to give to the resident Indian Community the right of free election of their representatives to the Legislative Council. It cannot possibly be denied, in my Association's opinion that, having regard to the history of Indian immigration into East Africa respectively, the Indian population of the Protectorate is less qualified to exercise the franchise of the Indian population in Fiji.

I have the honor to be,

Yours obedient servant,

Long Secretary.
