*I don't see any harm in the letter but in the whole of which it was a fact being done to the effect of upon my last day knowledge of the situation sent you March 14 1920

will have to be in any way

Yes. As a matter of fact when I sent off the letter they already knew from their dolls that something of the sort was projected at least. But that is their affair.

Your Excellency:-

I have the honour to refer to Your Excellency's communication No. 2410 of November 22nd in which it was stated that further rumours had reached the Italian Government in regard to British military preparations in the neighbourhood of Mareabit, and assurances were requested that no definitive occupation is intended by the British Government for the purpose of bringing the Sorana frontier further North and including Abyssinian territory.

2. I have the honour to inform Your Excellency that as stated in my note of the 21st July last, so far as is known the rumours referred to are without any foundation. The Italian Government will however readily understand that His Majesty's Government must reserve to themselves the right to take such measures as may be necessary to preserve British tribes from raids by Abyssinian tribes, which have been growing in frequency and gravity and which the Abyssinian Government appear to be incapable of restraining.

I have the honour to be with the highest consideration,

Your Excellency's most obedient,

humble servant,

(For the secretary of State)
