Mr. J. K. Tarachund Barrister at Law has been well known to me for many years. He is a member of one of the best known Parsi families of Bombay. I have much pleasure in stating that he is a gentleman of good moral character & high intellectual attainments. He practised for some time in the High Court of Bombay & conducted some important & one at least difficult case before me & I was favourably impressed with his industry & talents.

He is a very loyal subject of His Britannic Majesty & I feel quite sure that if he is entrusted with office of any kind he would discharge his duties honestly & efficiently & to the advantage of the public.

Mr. Tarachund has good knowledge of English Law and Indian Codes & Acts and he will prove very useful in a Judicial post.

I am informed that Mr. Tarachund left Bombay to improve his prospects in life. From what I know of him I feel sure he will achieve success in East Africa where he has settled.
