MARINE INSURANCE OF STORES

Ask if they should continue to ship stores to the E.A.P. without Marine Insurance.

W. Read.

I find from enquiry of Mr. Ezechiel that some intelligent man in the C.A.'s office saw something in a newspaper which led him to believe that the E.A.P. was so nearly emancipated from dependence on the Treasury that it might be worth while to raise this question.

? Reply that no change in existing arrangements should be made at present.
