Re employment.

Requests - preferably on R. Coast of Africa

Mr Cox

You will remember this case.

Mr Cox got shockingly into debt, & there were other things against him too. He seems to have tried to pay off his debts, but the Govt were not satisfied with the arrangements he made, & they practically made him resign. It is possible they treated him somewhat harshly, as it appears that he did his best to carry out the undertaking he previously gave as to clearing himself of debt.

The whole case was exhaustively considered by Lord Cromer, & the conclusion arrived at was (roughly speaking) that he had allowed himself to become scandalously involved, but that the Govt had treated him hardly in ~~marrying~~ getting rid of him at a time when he had made an arrangement which had he alleges & says - (on the whole, believe - the case) would have resulted in the complete payment of all his debts within a year or two. We also thought that the Govt had behaved badly in bringing to our notice certain alleged misconduct on his part - of which he had not been informed.

He was given, as an act of charity, a gratuity of £50 & he accepted it (28/4) as a final settlement of his case.

The question whether he could be re-employed was very carefully considered - when his case was before us.

The Minutes on the Memo in 333/89 & the letter to him as that point are the final ones on this subject, & are explicit against re-employment.

No occasion should that decision be reconsidered.

I propose to tell him very briefly in answer to his private letter to you some that the decision as to re-employment communicated to him in the official letter of the 22nd July 1909 is final, & that the question of offering him re-employment cannot be reopened.

The official letter should also be brief & to exactly the same effect.

He will probably come to see you & me some day soon, when we shall have to choke him off in the same way. (A recent private comm: with the 70 is attached).

Mr. Foran told me when he called on that his debts were practically paid off. I am sorry for him but I think the safer course is not to reemploy him. Mr. Roosevelt may very well give him a start in America if I think so highly of him.

MAY 3 1910

Sir,

I have the honour to apply for employment under the Colonial Office, for preference on the West Coast of Africa.

You will remember my case from East Africa and how settled I was in February 1908. You will also have heard since that I have done what I said I would do and that is pay off my old debts. They are now practically all settled, there being only a few to finish off.

No doubt you have also been informed that the Government of East Africa have recently ascertained that I was hardly used in the matter.

For the last year I have been with ex-President Roosevelt in East Africa, as the special Correspondent of the Associated Press of America and was the only Correspondent who completed the whole journey with Mr Roosevelt.

I have been fortunate enough to earn Mr Roosevelt's strong friendship and the Associated Press speak very highly of my work.

I should be very grateful if you could see your way to give me another chance of employment under the Colonial Office, and I can assure you that you would never have cause to regret it.

I feel confident that the Government of East Africa and Uganda, would speak on my behalf, for he is fully aware of all that happened in the past for me has made full enquiries, I fancy that the Government of East Africa would not advise my non-employment, seeing that I have been enabled to clear up many little points that they were in doubt about before and also because they realise now that I was not given a fair chance to liquidate my debts.

As to my past 18 months, I am sure that Mr Roosevelt and the Directors of the Associated Press would speak well for me.

Taking all things into consideration, I trust that you will give me an opportunity to show my worth on the West Coast of Africa or in some other part of the Colonial Empire. I am very keen to return to Government Service, and this is only natural when one remembers my past record of good service.

You have my letters of recommendation and I can send you more recent ones if you so desire it.

I sincerely trust that you will be able to offer me an appointment and so give me another chance, which I think you will admit that I deserve.

I shall be in London on Friday next (May 6th) and should be happy to call at the Colonial Office for an interview, should you wish it. In this event will you kindly give me a time.

In conclusion I may mention that the Foreign office are likely to offer me an appointment at Zanzibar, but I would prefer to serve under the Colonial Office if possible.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

Robert Foran

Dear Tilley.

I am sorry not to have replied to your letter of the 13th some. The Colonial

Office record of W. W. R. Foran is as follows:-

He was an Assistant ^{District} Superintendent of Police in the East from May 1907 until December 1908, & on the termination of his appointment he was drawing ~~£265~~ salary at the rate of £265 p.a.

Unfortunately he fell into serious debt and in the 19th was in consequence called upon to resign. I might add too,

that he was guilty of some misconduct, ^{connected with his indebtedness} in the discharge of his special duties. He failed to pass the Government Liability test, ~~consequently~~ ~~look~~ ~~was~~ though it appears from the correspondence that he was not so dependent in colloquial liability as this feature might ~~imply~~ suggest. I cannot say whether he succeeded in passing it or not.

It is only fair to state,
however, that he seems to have made
a genuine effort to clear himself of the debt, all the time that we were investigating the case
from the inception of ~~created~~ favorable impression by his straightforward proper conduct.

Dear Mr. Loran

I am very sorry that it is impossible to return a favourable answer to your letters to Mr. Cox and myself but it is not proposed to offer you re-employment under the department.

You must therefore accept as final the Secretary of States decision which was communicated to you in the official letter of the 22nd of January 1910, and realise that the question can not be reopened. An official letter to the above effect will reach shortly.

Believe me

Yours truly
