Mr Bottomley

This is for you.

Have you any use for Mr Apparcorne's letter?

Mr Reed

This reports has not of course been the same (who originally asked for him) consider that his experience outweighs the exp. difficulty from their special point of view. I should be inclined to ask them to consider him if they still want him (with obvious exceptions), & I shall be happy to help in any way concerning the matter.

MAY 20 1910

With reference to my application for employment under the Colonial Office, made in the year 1910, and to the subsequent correspondence, I am now in a position to renew my application, and for this purpose I should be glad to call at the Colonial Office if you would be good enough to inform me on what date and at what time I should call.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

Your obedient servant
H.M. Peppercorne

The Under Secretary of State
Colonial Office

Sir,

With reference to the two anonymous despatches no. 382 of the 20th of June 1910, and to subsequent correspondence on the subject of the two Peppersome's application for a survey appointment in the Colonial service, I have the honour to inform you that a letter has been received from The Peppersome stating that he is now at liberty and that he desires to be considered for app't.

As his age is now 37 it is not possible to consider his name in the ordinary course, but, in view of the fact that the P. G. was submitted for consideration in 1910, it is possible that the two references may be regarded as sufficient to justify his app't. to the E.A.P. and as outweighing the disadvantage of an age.

3. Mr. Peppercorne has been w/th that his application has been referred to you for comment, but that in regard to the Colonies there is little prospect of my being able to meet his wishes in view of the fact that he is considerably over the usual age for appointments of the kind.

Sir,
I am directed by Mr Harcourt to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 20th of May concerning your application for a minority appointment in the Colonies. I am to point out that you are considerably above the age at which candidates for these appointments usually receive, and to observe that Mr. Harcourt fears that there is little prospect of his being able to meet your wishes unless an opportunity should occur of offering you an appointment in the I.A.S. for which your name was under consideration in 1910.

I will however of the special cases of the I.A.S. which in the past have frequently been made for persons of the I.A.S. who are partly connected with the I.A.S. or with the I.A.S. or with the I.A.S.
