Reemployment

Request early reply to his appl.

Sir

I am directed by the Post Office to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 27th of May, & to inform you that your application for further employment has been forwarded to the relevant authorities for their consideration. It will be some time before we can call attention of it by forwarding to you any further reply to the Colonial Service.

[I have spoken to the Home Office. Get off the above letter & return same for further minute to the P.A.]

Sir

Your No. 6455/1910 of 14th March.

With reference to the above, I beg most respectfully to remind you of my application of the 3rd March asking for further Colonial employment, a reply to which I have not received yet. And as I understand a communication has now been received from the Governor of the East Africa Protectorate I would esteem it a great favour if a reply could be forwarded me by return post if possible.

I beg to remain
Sir

Your most obedient servant.

(see your letter No 14443): if it is sufficiently favorable, the Finance Agents would no doubt consider Mr Scott further - should suitable vacancies arise.

Mr Cox.

The answer now received of P.A. is very unimpressive.
Mr Scott was "excused for errors in compiling his Master Roll books" (see answer above from P.A.).
I don't think there is any use in writing him
further, we can't help him to better himself
on the reports which we have received (see above).
On the whole I should vote "No" (P.A. prefers we should not do this) 20 Sept

Sir

I am in receipt of your favour of the 2nd instant. In regard to which I shall be glad to hear of another appointment in the Colonial service when a likelihood of such occurs. In conclusion I beg to express my gratitude for the meeting. I have also received at the hands of the officials of the Colonial Office with whom I have had the honour of coming in contact from time to time.

I have the honour to remain
