Mr. Montgomery is in communication with a friend of Mr. Kibet's, and will let us know when he has returned in England.

All this? wait

H.S.D. 3/2

[Mr. Kibet is to be engaged by parcel, for special work in H.S.D., but his is not an essential part, but one of the 4. The of annual £2000 already required for (2000)

I should be very glad to hear of the great progress of the of the work and would be glad of that if they asked for more by the end of the year. In mind.

by the Admiralty for the special duties in the U. S. D.
He is told that the only person of an ordinary
rank in the U. S. D.
but it is clear
that if necessary we must get one for him out of the Treasury (^{perhaps} ~~perhaps~~ person a increase of salary) as he is apparently the only available man
with knowledge of canal work. He wants an increased place - to the U. S. D. - and so him well!

He is at present being put in touch with (A. Reading) who can give him info
about the country.

He has been called again today.
He is prepared to go out person rights. He he raised at the end of three years) - but he wants to make sure that by being in Marsabit or wherever he may be posted in the U. S. D. he will not be put to extra expense for transport - I mentioned the possibility of a local allowance (such as that Kittermaster draws) - 607

He wrote this letter at my suggestion while in the Office to direct we ought certainly to secure him - He is exactly what we want & considering his exp^{er} qualifications & the special nature of his post, we can well agree to £500, but the approval will be required.

He seems, however, to have before assembly is in session to be stationed telegraph reply with least possible delay.

Mr. J. Anderson as proposed?
and Summitt would probably like to see, as he is interested in the question of canal transport in the Northern District. Mr. Leese is an ex-Indian Vice Officer who is highly qualified in the interest of canal disease (see p. 55) & if he can reduce the heavy mortality among our country, he will be well worth his salary.
