W. Baker called today. He called to inquire the tel. as he had asked for nothing which as he said, had not been promised to him. I pointed out that he had had his case put before the Gov. when writing.

He told me of ... which he had been promised to a large land in the expectation of a small portion of land elsewhere. I pointed out that he had not told me of this before, which he explained by saying that they were well known in the settlement.
The whole of asking for an interview with Mr. Hancock when the debated arrives. I told her I could not say anything about that.

He is very good humoured on the matter & checks of going to Uganda if he can't get back in S.A.P. he is fallen

The absence of the evidence which he had in the investigation is a matter of of long standing. I should mention he had not told me of them before, which is explained by saying that they were well known in the protection the state of affairs for an interval with the Home Office when the despatch
anything about that.

matter & speaks of going to Uganda if he can't get land in E.A.P. to P. Jackson who in E.A.P. had advised her to do so.
