I think we should approach the proposal. The Bankers & Commercial bodies are ordinarily very closely concerned with the currency question. The only point that occurs to me is that if the Governor is invited to the I.O.D.'s proposal & gets the backing of Business other local bodies, it will be more difficult to introduce the special E.A. repub.

At the same time, everyone out in Pa. has probably heard of the proposal - there have been Part. Questions about it and the Gov. does not consult them. Naturally we may be certain that they will have views and will take care to bring them to the notice of the Gov. in relation to the subject of the proposal, and they will already have found sympathetic witnesses in the Chief Sec.

I think we must agree, though in a matter of procedure it would I think have been better if the Gov. had given us his own views first. We should have been in a much better position to meet local prejudice.
