BOMA TRADING COMPANY

In view of the fact that it is hoped to establish regular trade with Abyssinia thinks it would be desirable to cancel the bond of $2000 which they entered into. The Company could then participate in such trade on the same terms as others.

Sir G. Fiddes

This is ancient history. The bond was given when we had no administration in the Northern Frontier district & there seems to be no reason for insisting on it now.

Consent in the first view that the bond should be cancelled?
