CONFERENCE FOR ISLAND

Referred further to committee for acquisition.

Head Mr. G. Fiddes

This dispatch covers the story of the members and purchases up to including the 29th of July when Mr. Downing telegraphed his proposal to place £50000 at the disposal of the Govt. for this purpose.

Since then there has been further telegraphic comm: with the Dep. Gov. as the result of which we have asked Messrs. to agree to the £50000 proposal. We wrote to Messrs. 12 August in 27053/13. They have not yet in the case of the temporary loan of an officer from one post to another - that the lending post continues to pay the substantive salary of the officer in question while the borrowing post also bears the whole of all extra expense which the arrangement involves, i.e. pay of substitute travelling expenses &c.

apparently S. J. Gurner is still on the spot.

There was some trouble in Z'han (which always breeds friction) about Capt Skelton - but I had not hesitated to accept Mr Sep's recommendation here. esp. as Prof Simpson wants it & the P.S.D. (who knows Capt Skelton) must be in agreement of the facts.
