No grounds for anxiety. On May 8 the disarmament of the Marakhan was approved after the submission of one section & delivery of their arms. Situation not difficult if a firm attitude is adopted by Abyssinian Govt.

Sir J. Anderson

Telegraph to the Deputy ^{in copies} saying that so serious a step as the disarmament of the Marakhan should not have been undertaken without discussion with the S. of S. that as Abyssinian Govt. incapable of maintaining order on northern frontier we are expending our small force to undue risk - that Mr. Harcourt considers the situation dangerous. Requests that Sir J. will keep the Marakhan under his earnest attention & keep him
