Letter from Sir J Anderson

We have now, in the enclosure to this despatch, got definite views as to the permanent development conditions, but they relate only to the period of the three years occupation lease and not to the subsequent lease. That some things more will be required under the lease is however apparent from the Governor's despatch, in which he says that if his proposal for an immediate lease is approved some expenditure within the first five years, in addition to the Committee's proposals for the first three years, will be necessary. It also points out that it must be a condition of the lease, besides or even transfer, to maintain the permanent improvements on the scale laid down in foot note.
