further savings of £15,882
The revenue is put at £855,684
So that there has been a further increase of £96,222

Hence the surplus at 31.3.13 would be increased from £196,272 to £308,376!

On this year's estimate the surplus was taken at £165,000, which is now being doubted, but is pointed out by Sir G. Pitt-Rivers we probably a lot of savings which would have been met from the £70,941 mentioned in this table, which have probably been carried forward. We must wait for the definite A to this, but we have the good fact that the revenue was 22%

Sir,

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your despatch No. 650 of the 13th of August 1913 respecting an application by Mr. H. C. Smith for employment in the Colonies.

2. In accordance with the request contained in paragraph 3 of your despatch Mr. Smith was asked to call upon the Treasurer in order that his qualifications for a post in that Department might be ascertained. He did not keep the appointment nor was any explanation ever received from him.

3. I gather however that Mr. Smith is hardly fitted for such a post as that for which he applies.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your humble, obedient servant,

Albion Bayfield

GOVERNOR.

THE STANDARD BANK OF SOUTH AFRICA, Limited.

Nairobi,

June 30th 1913.

The Hon. Chief Secretary to the Government, Nairobi.

Dear Sir,

Your letter of 19th instant addressed to Mr. Toogood was apparently overlooked by him before his departure for Europe.

Our records show that Mr. H. C. Smith was employed in this office from 10th January to 1st October 1911, and that during that time he performed his duties satisfactorily.

Yours faithfully

Sd/- H. Parker

ELDORET,

28th June 1913.

The Chief Secretary,

Nairobi.

Sir,

In reply to your letter of 19th June I have much pleasure in stating that Mr. H. C. Smith was a Clerk in our Nairobi Office for some time and I found him most willing, correct and with a good sense of book-keeping.

He left our service to start on his own account as a book-keeper and I feel sure he will prove a most useful clerk, if this is the nature of the appointment he now seeks in the Colonial Service.

I have &c.,
