Each African Dept
has been already been considered for the second vacancy the P.S. (Sunderland) the best 5 men in his books. I have not answered I have refused. I have not got the Dutch master's certificate and there was no Barton (29895) a v. good candidate who is willing to go but is man (29). Are you willing to the crisis, to take him a $20 you want us to try again? In the latter case we shall have to fall back on our reserves, and even so it may be 2 or 3 weeks before we can find a man. However, he has a habit of being at the other end of the world just when they are wanted.

Another candidate ready to sail in partially has just turned up in the Greenwood (29156/13) about whom I believe that Mr. Turner spoke to you yesterday. Mr. Greenwood has not the formal educational qualifications of Mr. Burtin, but otherwise he is well qualified. Will you please let us have an estimate of your needs
