LAND SALES

Your tel 27th May 21 of the 34 farms were alienated August 21st realising £7,258. Requests remaining farms (13) may remain open for allotment under conditions stated.

Lt. G. Fiddle.

At the May sale bidding was limited to those who had not acquired land from Govt direct at the first allotment, or re-allocated, approved on 4/4/08. It appears from the Gazette that this was condition which advised Govt leases but not leases - i.e., not allocated. This is however, since 1/1/13 allocated the new allotment on the grounds that many newly arrived persons had not had time to inspect the farms.

Mr. Tannabill's report on the May sale (2/5/17) contains no suggestions of the extension to Govt leases, which is open to criticism on the ground of about a year the three months notice given in February.

28517
 Approved by the Dept. for

2/3/15/86

of a sale of lands to certain persons cannot be regarded as proper notice of the sale of some of these lands to those persons and others. However, the thing is done now without authority - and it is no use cavilling against its repetition.

There is objection to the remaining forms being offered again if, as I suppose, there is a better reason for it than the mere prevalence of good prices. Mr Tannerhill said in his report in 2157 that it was to the interests of the settlers that adjoining farms should be occupied. For example (no doubt) A & B will club together to build a dam which A alone would be disinclined to build or his own cost the way that B, coming in later, would get the full benefit of it.

In 18112 the question was raised of deferring development of Tairāwhiti farms pending road construction. One dep. said that the S.P.S. would have had no objection if he had had proper notice.
I can find no further official reference to the matter & the Gazetteer shows that it has not been included in the published conditions of sale. I heard from someone that purchasers intended to adopt an attitude of laissez-faire, & in any case postponement would be unadvisable.

enough. It may be that it is now unnecessary, as default of payment of purchase price has been observed, but I think we might ask at least the matter stands, & I should call attention to the fact that authority should have been obtained for the extension of the sales to Govt leases?
