Mr. Read,

I don't see what else we could have put into the telegram. Mr. Belfield was practically asked us to stand aside, and see no objection.

? Tell the Syndicate that the Gov. telegraphed out for the Gov's view but that the Gov. has replied that he is unable from a telegraphic summary to offer an opinion on the matter and asks that they may furnish him with a full expression of their wishes, &c.

One add that a copy of their letter went to the Gov. ^{by the mail} of Oct. 25th

Oct 27 1913

We had better send a copy of our tel. to show what we sent otherwise they will think that we did not
