~~July 14th, 1913.~~

No. 21.

Your telegram No. 13 of #

I forwarded to you a despatch on this subject on June 28th by bag.

If compensation in rifles were granted, they would be taken from the Government store of old rifles, and not collected on the frontier, and thus nothing would be done to relax the trade or relieve the situation on the frontier.
