Sir,

In the absence of the Commissioner of Lands and with his approval I am writing direct to you respecting certain grants for setton land applied for by Mr. J. Foulkes on behalf of himself and Lady Kenneth Mackenzie, certain correspondence having taken place between the applicants and the Colonial Office at home. I have the honour to state that I have made the necessary investigations regarding availability of land, and absence of local objections, and have granted Mr. Foulkes rights of temporary occupation subject to the necessary financial proofs of means being supplied by the representatives of applicants in England to the Colonial Office, it being understood that this would be done, and on our receiving confirmation from the Colonial Office that these proofs were satisfactory we would proceed with survey and preparation of deeds.

Mr. Foulkes is very anxious that a letter informing them of our action be forwarded at once to the Colonial Office that matters may be put in train, as he has waited here considerable time before it was possible to

I forward for your information a copy of the temporary occupation papers granted, and Mr. Feulken is sending his copy home to his representatives who will call at the Colonial Office giving the necessary financial guarantees.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient,
humble Servant,
