Written Answer

Mr. G. Fisher.

I take it that the white men near the sinking out of a short-hand written from this country, as short-hand written are not a local product. They are to mind to report.

I am unable to adopt my Hon. the friend's suggestion as

Reply - I regret that I do not see sufficient ground for going beyond the ordinary practice of the Court.

as I have indicated in H. J. R.
I shall be supplied by the Gov. 9/11/13

Mr. Secretary Harcourt - I regret that I am unable to adopt my honourable friend's suggestion, as I do not see sufficient ground for going beyond the ordinary practice of the Court. I have no doubt that I shall be supplied by the Governor with an adequate Report of the proceedings. [27th May 1913.]
