allowance of the half and half in principle.
2. I agree to the schedules of officers contained in Sir William Manning's conf-dup of the 27th of January 1912 and (6809) in regard to the question of consolidated allowances I will await the list of officers whose duties entail constant travelling. This list was asked for in para 3 of my conf-dup of the 1st of Nov<sup>r</sup> 1911.

3. The question of a travelling allowance for the Governors will receive consideration in connection with the additional estimate of Egypt for the year 1913-14, but I cannot yet say whether it will be possible to make provision for such an allowance.

Sir,

In the circumstances represented by Mr. Secretary Harcourt in Mr. Read's letter of the 7th instant (3973/1913) the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury sanction the assignment as from the 1st April next of duty allowances of £60 per annum and £50 per annum respectively to Lieutenant Reynolds, Marine Superintendent, and Mr. Grant Superintendent Engineer, Marine Department, Uganda Railway.

The above authority is given on the understanding that the amount involved (£110) will be covered by modifications of other items of expenditure included in the draft Protectorate Estimates 1913-14 so as to restrict the total expenditure of the Protectorate to the maximum admissible under the modified half and half principle.

I am,

Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

The Under Secretary of State, Colonial Office.
