GRATUITIES FOR CLERKS IN LATE A.G.'S OFFICE

1913

March

Last previous Paper.

Having regard to the fact that the Clerks were apptd by the A.G. at his discretion and paid out of a lump sum for office expenses are precluded by established practice from regarding them as eligible for any award of gratuity on cessation of their employment.

I cannot believe that we shall get anything by going back to the Treasury. It is not a strong case, though I would have liked to obtain some kind of gratuity for Davaar. We can give extra leave, I suppose, but if this suggestion is to be made, I think it might as well come from the Governor.

Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 3rd ultimo (314/1912-13), recommending the award of gratuities to certain clerks employed by the late Agent General at Bombay for the British Protectorates in East Africa, I am directed by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to request you to inform the Secretary of State for the Colonies that, having regard to the fact that the clerks were appointed by the Agent General at his discretion and paid out of a lump sum granted to him for office expenses, My Lords are precluded by their established practice from regarding them as eligible for any award of gratuity on the cessation of their employment.

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

L. Heath

The Under Secretary of State,
Colonial Office.
