Sir,

No 6944
I have laid before the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury Mr. Read's letter of the 19th ultimo (6944/1913), and its accompanying copy of a section of an Ordinance to make better provision for the organisation of the Prisons staff, and the management of the Prisons in the East Africa Protectorate.

I hereby request you to inform Mr. Secretary Harcourt that in the circumstances represented My Lords approve the grant of gratuities to subordinate officers of the Prisons Department on their discharge as proposed in that section of the Ordinance.

I am,

Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

J. B. Chamberlain

The Under Secretary of State, Colonial Office.

Recd. 4/87

Sir

I have the honour to inform you that I have had under consideration the East Africa Prison Ordinance, ^{which is} ~~and~~ 1912, which was transmitted to me with your despatch No. 367 of December 11th 1912, and that after obtaining the advice of the Prison Commissioners in the measure, it appears to me that to be desirable that certain amendments should be effected before the enactment is brought into operation.

2. In the first place I think that the reference requires a number of details which, according to English practice, might have been left to the Statutory Rules under section 14. If, for example, it is at any time desired to alter section 14 and 17, it may not be found convenient to have recourse to legislation, and I would accordingly suggest for your consideration the expedient of altering these sections, and making the necessary provision for the classification of the various prisons and for the scale of fees, by regulation formed under section 14.

3. In section 2 ~~subordinate~~ grades is defined as an officer of a Prison below the rank of gaoler or warden.
I note, however, that although the term warden is defined, no definition is given of the word 'gaoler'. This omission should be supplied.

In the same section it appears to be desirable to define the term 'medical subordinate Assistant' which occurs under the definition of 'medical officers'.

In the classification of European Gaolers and Warden which is given under section 8, gaolers are divided into three grades.
It is not apparent whether this classification includes 'head Gaolers', who are defined in section 2, all the former should be made clear.

Under section 9 it is provided that any consular official may, subject to the direction of the Commission, perform any of the duties and exercise any of the powers of the Commission.

This provision, however, seems to be unnecessary in view of the fact that by definition under section 2

"Commissioner" includes an Assistant Commissioner of Immigration.

In section 4, in the paragraph at issue, it is not apparent that consular officials are precluded from examining section 8 only European goods are provided for provision has not been made for goods of any other nationality.

4. I think that from section 27 of the ordinance that it is proposed to dispense with a magisterial authority into the charge of the health of a person whenever a medical officer certifies that the death resulted from natural causes. Such a provision seems to me to be far to objection, and unless there is a strong local reason against it, I should prefer to see the English practice adopted. Surely there must be a coroner's inquest in the case of every death of a person in custody.

5. I think that various sections of the ordinance are best done regarding the provision to be adopted for the ~~removal~~ ^{of persons} of persons in ^{admission} to a goal so that includes medical examination.

although under section 62 such examination is prescribed in the case of the removal of prisoners from one yard to another. The Prison Commission have pointed out that such such medical examination is now regarded as indispensable in all good prison systems, and have further suggested that such admissions ought to be kept in a separate building until the medical officers have been performed their duty to enter the main prison and confront with the other prisoners. I shall accordingly be glad if you will have a clause inserted in the ordinance to give effect to these suggestions.

6. Under section 70 it is provided that civil prisoners shall be kept apart from criminal prisoners.

As a criminal prisoner is defined in section 2, it would seem also desirable to insert a definition of civil prisoners in that section.

7. I have already expressed my opinion in paragraph 2 of this dispatch as to the expediency of deleting section 87 of the ordinance, and proposing rules under section 144 to regulate the diet of prisoners.

A similar course should be adopted with regard to section 88 under which power is given to a superintendent and to vary diets, for if a superintendent is to have such power, it seems necessary to provide a statutory diet. Both sections should be omitted from the ordinance, the necessary provision regarding the dietary of prisoners being made in the rules, in which an alternative series of diets can be specified, with a proviso that no greater allowance is to be given except on the recommendation of the medical officers.

8. The last foregoing section of section 97, which provides for prisoners being permitted to consult their advocates should be amended as follows:

"Prisoner visiting trust shall be allowed to see their advocates in the night, but not for the "prison, out of the hearing of a "prison officer, unless for a special reason the Superintendent shall order otherwise. This alteration seems advisable as it may happen that there may be at some time an advocate in the Prison who would see a prisoner interviewed with a prisoner for the purpose of depositing the ends of justice.

9. I draw from a perusal of section 101 that it is not proposed to make compulsory the visit of visiting justices to Third Class Prisons, and that further there may be provision to appoint no visiting justice is may be appointed by the Governor.

Such a regulation appears to me to be open to grave objection. It is essential to my opinion that every person should be regularly visited by a visiting justice, and I expect ^{that} you will make the necessary provision in the ordinance to give effect to this view.

10. I would also draw your attention to the fact that although a very comprehensive list of offences is given under section 112, it is not clear how they are to be communicated to prisoners who, it is presumed, are, for the most part, illiterate. It would accordingly be desirable to frame a rule under section 114

In the second line of this section ^{the} word "be" should be altered to
"by".

providing that all material rules shall be sent to prisoners on admission.

11. I observe that in section 120 and 121 two scales of penalties are provided for breaches of prison regulations, those in the latter section being for offences of an aggravated or more serious nature.

These terms appear to me to be objectionable as being incapable of precise definition, and I have accordingly requested that they may be omitted. The two sections being amalgamated, and one scale of penalties framed which should apply to all offences of the kind, and be independent of his being.

If this to done it can easily
