Sir,

I am directed by the National Health Insurance Commission (England) to forward for the consideration of the Secretary of State for the Colonies an application from Miss Dorothy K. Smythe, an officer on their outdoor staff, for appointment as Postmistress of Nairobi.

Miss Smythe, who was formerly in the Savings Bank Department of the Post Office, was appointed a Health Insurance Officer in October last. She has discharged her duties in that capacity to the entire satisfaction of the Commissioners.

I am,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Woodgate

Under-Secretary of State,
Colonial Office,
Whitehall, S.W.

Sir,

I am to transmit to you for the consideration of the P.M.G., a copy of a letter from the National Health Insurance Commission (England) with the accompanying application from Miss D. K. Smyth for appointment as Postmistress at Nairobi, and to request that her name may be considered with those of other candidates for service with the Postal Dept. of the E.A.P.

2 The vacancy referred

W. Bottomley

to by Miss Smythe is incorrectly described, and presumably refers either to that for a female postal clerk and telegraphist, or to that ^{for an} accountant see Miss Witcomb referred to in the letter from this Office of the 24th of June.
