After consulting you I wrote to S. D. Pann pointing out that a salary of £400 was possible, if necessary, and asked whether this affected his views as to possible candidates, and whether he thought, from his conversation with his Cousin, that it was worth while offering the lower terms to the French.

I collect from ~~the~~ ~~offer~~ ~~as~~ ~~usual~~

- (a) that we offer £400 to W. French
- (b) that he should not get a really good

- (c) that the lower salary may be better fall back on him

I have attended W.S. of a

Sir,

I have the honour to acknowledge receipt of Colonial Office letter number 27366/1913 dated 10 August 1913 and in reply to inform you that I have this day written to Mr Don, whose present address I have learned is Mokolongwe, Nyasaland, informing him of the fact that there is a vacancy for a Coffee Plant Inspector in the East African Protectorate, and supplying him with a copy of the particulars forwarded to me with Colonial Office letter number 24829/1913 dated 26 July 1913.

I have suggested to Mr Don that it is desirable if he wishes his name taken into consideration in connection with this vacancy, that he should apprise you of this fact without delay. At the same time I have pointed out to Mr Don that the fact that he has been informed ^{of the existence} by me of this vacancy does not carry with it more than the opportunity of having his claims considered along with the claims of other applicants for the same appointment.

I am,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

D. Bram
Director.

My dear Dad,

I met Mr Cousins yesterday and had an opportunity of talking with him on the subject of the vacancy in the E.A. Protectorate for a Chief

Cult Inspector

Mr Cousins sent me with Mr Sydney Oliver as opposed to Mr. French's competitor for the post. That Mr Cousins is your man as I believe about a salary of makes the Protectorate to offer some attempt this. If France did agree to go, he would

 The Cousins' opinion is just the kind of man
 the Protectorate Government and I quite agree with him - that this is a matter of very trifling consequence if he is abhorred to an intelligent man.

Whether it will be desirable, seeing that the Pro-tectant would like a more man, to enter into the part of Finance to find a man I don't know.

Dear Mr. Bostwick

Yours of the day before yesterday

I reply at once to say I gather from what Mr. Coombs said any possibility of it

It is better to a great any useful purpose would be served by asking him

 Judging from what Corcoran said of his thoughts straight in Sir J. O'Hara's letter on this subject. I feel that this is one of those cases in which it would probably be well to mention the higher order at the subject Since this matter has come
