EAST AFRICA PROTECTORATE

GOVERNMENT HOUSE,
NAIROBI,
BRITISH EAST AFRICA.

No. 103.

March 18th, 1911.

SIR,

I have the honour to report that Mrs. Bollean, widow of the late Major Bollean, Stock Inspector in the Agricultural Department, has forwarded a petition that a Second Class passage to England may be granted her free of cost.

The case is very similar to that of Mrs. Baker, which furnishes a precedent for this course of action, vide Lord Crewe's despatch No. 447 of August 6th 1900, and I would solicit your most favourable consideration, as I understand that Mrs. Bollean's circumstances are somewhat straitened.
