Operations agst Marehan

Yours tel. 22 Feb. Have communicated with Sordas, & Camels expected at Keamayn about end of April

Mr. G. F. Rhodes
I take it that they get on without the Camel Corps Company (men & camels) & that the amounts which they are obtaining from the Sordas will enable them to put their own men in the field again. We may however leave the J.O. to maintain from the India post whether mounted camelry is required in the future. Our requirements could be met from India or Aden. I am with you
Sordas expected the 25th of Feb. 1914
