TESTIMONIAL OF CHARACTER.

I have very great pleasure in testifying to the honest, industrious, and truthful character of Mr. John F. Packman, whom I have known since his birth.

He was educated at St. Andrew's College here in Graham's town, and took a B.A. degree in the University of the Cape of Good Hope.

His father is the Rector of the St. Bartholomew's Church in this City, which office he has held for 41 years, and is highly respected.

John Packman held an appointment for some time in the Civil Service of the Cape Government, but unfortunately he became very deaf, which has been greatly against his career, and on account of which I believe he had to give up his appointment in the Civil Service; but this I think need not be a bar against some appointment of labour, where perfect hearing is not required.
