In reference to the existing vacancy for the post of Inspector of Police, I have the honour to advise the name of Mr. R. P. Reineford for your consideration.

Mr. Reineford has held a temporary Government appointment as Inspector of Police since last June and was previously employed by the Veterinary Department for a period of three years prior to that date. He has also held the post of Inspector of Police at the Hotel Victoria, Nairobi, for a period of three years. He is a well-qualified and experienced African Police Officer and his appointment is recommended on the basis of his professional knowledge and experience. I have the honour to request your approval of Mr. Reineford's appointment, subject to the usual probationary period of three years.

I have the honour to be, Sir,

Sir,

Yours faithfully,

Mr. Piddes

It is the honor to acknowledge the receipt of Mr. Jackson's dispatch N^o 136 of the 24th of March, to inform you that I approve of your offering ^{probatary} ~~probationary~~ an Assistant Inspector of Police to Mr. R. F. Rainford on the same terms as the other Assistant Inspectors who have already been selected for app^t.

2. The "existing vacancy" to which reference is made in the first para. 2.

W. H. ...

Mr. Jackson's dispatch is presumably that which has already been filed by the Chief of Mr. T. B. Brewster.
In this case, Mr. Rainford will fill the vacancy
created by the promotion of Mr. W. J. Kelly.

I should be glad to learn whether you wish
me to select another Assistant Inspector to fill the remaining vacancy caused by the promotion of Mr.
R. J. H. Anderson.

In any case, you will no doubt submit recommendations for the promotion of two Assistant Inspectors to fill the vacancies in the rank of the Inspectors caused by the promotion of Mr. Kelly & Mr. Anderson
