GOVERNMENT HOUSE,
NAIROBI,
BRITISH EAST AFRICA.

22nd September 1914.

Sir,

I have the honour to address you on the subject of increasing the emoluments attached to the office of Assistant Commissioner of Police.

2. The duties and responsibilities of both the Commissioner and Assistant Commissioner have become very much greater during the last two years owing to the growth of the force and it is a testimony of their good work that the same standard of efficiency has been maintained.

3. Now that you have approved of the salary of the Commissioner being raised I recommend that that of the Assistant Commissioner be treated likewise and that in the estimates for the ensuing year I be authorised to insert provision for this officer on the scale of £500 by £25 to £600, with £50 Duty allowance.

4. I trust that you will be able to approve this recommendation.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your obedient, humble servant,

H. Lewis Breyer

GOVERNOR.

RIGHT HONOURABLE

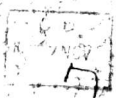

LEWIS HARCOURT, P.C., M.P.,
