There can be no harm in this, but I hope that when the schedule of the new loan is settled they will endeavour to sort out the various capital works with some degree of definiteness with capital expenditure being set from

- (a) U. R. Act's funds
- (b) loan of £75,000
- (c) Reserve
- & (d) the new loan,

Every new arrangement for such expenditure involves an amount of work & risk of confusion which should be unnecessary
