is to set two dit orders copied and signed by Mr. Hancock and then to send it (with copies of the corresp. with H.O.) to Gov. in Dep.
The Gov. sh^d. be asked to ~~send with the previous letter~~ ^{send with the previous letter} ~~to send~~ by first opportunity a notification of his concurrence in the Order of Removal in the form (No 2) provided in the Schedule to the O in C. of Sept 9th 1907, & a second copy of the notification being signed by him, attached to the Order of Removal and kept in the Protectorate for record. He should also be asked to telegraph (i.e. we want the longest possible notice) name of vessel by which the prisoner sails, port of arrival, Expected date of departure & date of arrival and name of officer in charge of the prisoner. Copy ^{sent} ~~sent~~ to H.O. (L.P.)

(This is follows the 3rd precedent generally)

? So proceed according to the H.O. memorandum the Order must be prepared in duplicate, one copy to go to H.O.

The Gov. does not say there is any urgency, but I think it will be worth while, as in Smith's case, to telegraph to him when the Order has been signed, so that he will have

Sir,

With reference to your letter of the 10th instant (48381/1914) transmitting copy of a despatch from the Governor of the East Africa Protectorate on the subject of the removal to this country under the Colonial Prisoners Removal Act of James Storie Anderson, who has been sentenced to 2½ years' rigorous imprisonment for Cheating under Section 420 Indian Penal Code, I am directed by the Secretary of State for the Home Department to acquaint you, for the information of the Secretary of State for the Colonies, that on the understanding that all expenditure will, in accordance with the usual practice, be defrayed from Colonial funds, he assents to the removal of the prisoner to England, and will make arrangements for the reception of the prisoner in any English Prison on learning when and where he may be expected to land.

I am,

Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

A. J. Eagleston

The Under Secretary of State,

Colonial Office,

S.W.

ORDER OF REMOVAL

COLONIAL PRISONERS REMOVAL ACT, 1884.

WHEREAS James Storie Anderson was on the 3rd of November 1914 convicted before the High Court of the East Africa Protectorate of the offence of cheating punishable under Section 420 of the Indian Penal Code and sentenced to rigorous imprisonment for the term of two and a half years and the said James Storie Anderson is now undergoing such sentence in the Protectorate.

AND WHEREAS by reason of there being no prison in the Protectorate in which the said James Storie Anderson can properly undergo his sentence, the removal of the said James Storie Anderson is expedient for more efficiently carrying his sentence into effect.

NOW I DO HEREBY in pursuance of the Colonial Prisoners' Removal Act, 1884, with the concurrence of the Government of the said Protectorate order that the said James Storie Anderson be removed to the United Kingdom there to undergo the residue of his said sentence (with such variations of the conditions thereof as are or shall be provided by any regulations in force for the time being under the said Act) in accordance with the said Act.

Given under the hand of the undersigned, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State this 5th day of January 1915.
