German Zanzibar Treaty

Under the provisions of the German Zanzibar Treaty the object of the present Convention is to amend the existing German Zanzibar Treaty of the 24th of August 1890 and to amend it so as to accord with the provisions of the German Zanzibar Treaty of the 24th of August 1890.

~~German Zanzibar Treaty~~
2nd Division

By art. 1 of the German Zanzibar Treaty of the 24th of August 1890 the German Government undertakes to abstain with regard to the authority of the Lower when flag is raised in default thereof to the territorial authority in the subject of the draft treaty - to abstain the power a place within the territory of Zanzibar the

Sir:-

I am directed by Secretary Sir E. Gray to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 14640/1910 of the 10th. instant respecting the proposed New Treaty between the Government of Zanzibar and Germany.

Mr. Secretary Harcourt expresses the opinion that Clause c of the draft Treaty, the object of which is to place matters covered by Articles 35, 36, and 37 of the Brussels Act in the hands of the local authorities, should not deal with matters affecting the relations of the East Africa Protectorate and German East Africa. I am however to observe that if the proposed Clause c makes no mention of the mainland Dominions of the Sultan i.e. of the ten miles strip of land in East Africa) and clause c remains as it is now there would be nothing in the Treaty to vary the provisions of the Brussels Act, which are at present in force, and under which the control of German dhows in the mainland ports is in certain respects vested in the German Authorities. In these circumstances it appears to Sir E. Grey that the object in view would best be attained by retaining the clause in its present form.

With regard to the observations made by Mr. Harcourt respecting the wording of clauses 3, 4, and 5 of the subsidiary Treaty, I am to state that the phrasing of these clauses will be altered so as to accord with that adopted in clause 2 of the Main Treaty.

I am,

Sir,

Your most obedient,

humble servant,

W. Langley
