Such a case as that of Mr. Tarrant is a miserable one.
Only 43, about 17 years service cannot be justified & must just stay as till he gets a pension. Person Mr. Tarrant's case is similar, save that he is much older. He is making things till he gets a pension, & the happy day is not far off.

The report on Mr. Howard is very friendly & favorable.
I have known him quite a while & for some 25 years, he spoke to me when in town last summer about his growing up, & he certainly did feel not getting the post a good deal. As soon as Sir P. Gunder says, that he will soon be back in the service. His growing

CONFIDENTIAL No. 5.

Sir,

With reference to your despatch Miscellaneous of 21st November 1911, I have the honour to forward, in duplicate, annual confidential reports on the senior staff of the Protectorate.

2. I regret exceedingly that these reports were not forwarded in January 1911. I was absent from the Protectorate at the time and was not aware of the fact that reports had not been forwarded until receipt of your above-mentioned despatch.

3. I have now given instructions to the Chief Secretary which I trust will obviate any further omission with regard to the annual confidential reports.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient humble servant,

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE
LEWIS HARCOURT, P.C., M.P.,
SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE COLONIES,
DOWNING STREET, LONDON, S.W.

GOVERNOR.
