

DESPATCH

EAST AFR. PROT.

No. 34567

C O 34567

(Subject)

Tacao us for Postal Clerks and Dislographists.

I M 9 has one suitable candidate from Natal and could probably obtain others should there be difficulty in obtaining desired class of men in England.

N. Ellis

(Minutes.)

Please see 34073, 34553 & separate minutes on 34367.

This let. definitely refers to the recruitment of three P.C.'s & T's & the man referred to as having been ^{not recommended only one recommended} (secured) by Mr Gosling cannot therefore be the one referred to in para. 2 of let. to 20 page 504. Mr Gosling ought not to have acted in the manner which was in our hand without letting us know, but as a matter of fact no harm is done.

? Ack: 34073 say that offer has been by ~~Mr~~ W. Pearson has declined the offer & that it will be offered to Mr Pearson. Offer to Pearson accordingly in dft. as on 31.2.05, and remind him if he does not reply within a week.

Mr. Controller

We hope to get two men from G.P.O. but we have been five months about it as there is great difficulty about getting the men

Probably there is some urgency of the electric telegraph

Comptroller

you may appoint Match candidate

by letter

(I need not trouble you with the other H. as the candidates depend by G.P.O.)
