TREASURY CHAMBERS,

3911
07

March 1907.

Sir,

I have laid before the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury Mr. Antroub's letter (45631/1906) of the 27th ultimo, further in regard to the case of Mr. R.G. Farrant, a Collector in the service of the East Africa Protectorate.

In reply I am to say that, after very carefully considering the representations of the Earl of Elgin, My Lords regret to be unable to agree to the proposal that Mr. Farrant should be retired on a pension, even though reduced.

I am,

Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

The Under Secretary of State,
Colonial Office.
