An excellent article, which ought to be given to Part I, I think.

It will at any rate form a useful basis in case of my history of "Government". And it will be an addition to the present one, which is not very good.

3. The boundary between the Protektorate and German East Africa has been finally demarcated and much useful information concerning Eritrea (and) those regions has been collected by Lieutenant

Gen. RE.
Colonel Smith and his assistants in the survey.

The boundary with Abyssinia has been the subject of prolonged negotiations with King Menelik, which will I trust result in the signature of a satisfactory agreement at no distant date.

~~An expedition promoted by the~~ Zionist Association for the investigation of the Gash Gishu plateau did not result in the adoption of any scheme for the settlement of that district; but their labours added con~~siderably to our knowledge of the country.~~
