Mr. Read

Major Spulobany is the man who some years ago led a sort of financial expedition to Morocco. He was tried under the Foreign Trade Board Act at Gibraltar but acquitted. His acquisition is from a fund no great amount of money.

The Chief Justice was for many years Justice to the Customs and I think it would be a good thing to say his name has been given as a supporter of Jolly King of such low repute. The result may be little mutual enlightenment at subsequent Paper.

Sir,

Referring to your letter of 22nd April No 12820/1907, we have the honor to inform you that we have the support of Major A.G. Spilsbury, of 1 Broad Street Place, and his financial friends who have promised us the whole of the Capital, if necessary, for the proposed Railway and Water Supply schemes.

We are also authorised to state that Sir Charles Pollett and his friends will support us financially in this business.

We are not engineers ourselves, but with the support and co-operation of these two groups we shall obtain the best advice from the highest authorities on these matters and secure the services of the most competent engineers to carry out the works.

Trusting that the above will be satisfactory to you and that we may shortly have an opportunity of discussing our proposals with you,
