Mr. Reed

(Allegation)

If the medical reasons for the great case, he has been long enough in the hospital to know that he would have had to take into consideration without requiring his appt. [I am afraid that we transferred him to St. C. without requiring him to be medically examined in St. Petersburg.]

The agreement would provide for a refund in the event of his resigning his appt. within three years for any reason other than physical or mental infirmity.

I agree the charge of receiving a certificate from the St. C. that he is not physically fit for service in the St. C. and is not likely to be fit within three months - and at once advise form for the St. C. - St. C. St. C. St. C.

in charge of another office and as the time had every intention of returning to East Africa but on my arrival in England I was seen by a doctor who strongly advised me to remain in England for at least a year on account of my health. I then gave my own resignation.

4. Under the circumstances and in consideration of my services I was under the Colonial Office since 1901 I desired to hope that Lord Elgin would see his way to assist me in the repayment of the passage & money by me 5. I am an indigent widow of means
