Delivered General Office S.S.I. on 25th March 1908

25th March. Lord Cardross asks me transmit following telegram to your Lordship. Commences. ~~This~~ general meeting settlers has heard with amazement and indignation of action taken by His Excellency the Governor regard to Delamere and Baillie. Meeting feels it was indefinite and inconclusive character His Excellency speech at public meeting called by him in reply to question of vital urgency that was reason and justification for subsequent gathering at Government House. Meeting regrets that His Excellency should have represented respectful and orderly gathering at Government House as disorderly demonstration. Meeting regrets that few individuals stung by unsympathetic attitude and speech of Governor was betrayed into making use of exclamations to which His Excellency has taken exception. For this however whole meeting was in no way responsible. ~~None~~
