See also 1416 where the Gov.
says that they are willing to accept re-appoint and that they are not likely to repeat their misconduct.

If they are re-appointed. It is desirable that they should be in their places until the 1st of June on the land Bell begins early in Feb.

Would therefore telegraph that H.M. has been pleased to give directions for the appointment of

Governor's Office,

EAST AFRICA PROTECTORATE.

No. 349.

My Lord,

I have the honour to refer to the correspondence ending with Your Lordship's despatch of the 12th of June last.

2. The action I took in connection with the incident at Government House in March last and which met with the support of Your Lordship and Lord Elgin has vindicated the dignity of the Governor's Office.

3. Now that eight and a half months have elapsed, that the cause of order has been maintained, and the attitude of those concerned in the demonstration has been correct and reasonable, I consider the time has come when a veil might be drawn over the past, leniency shown, and the two suspended members be reinstated in the Legislative Council.

4. This would be looked upon as a graceful act, and so far to strengthen the good feeling between the Official and non-Official communities which now exists, and which I cannot think has ever been so strained as the incident referred

THE PRINCIPAL SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE COLONIES,
BRIDGE STREET,

referred to would seem to indicate.

6. I have accordingly, subject to Your Lordship's approval, the honour to recommend that the names of Lord Delamere and Mr. Bullis may be submitted to His Majesty for re-employment in the Legislative Council.

6. In submitting this recommendation I would wish that my reasons be made clear. I in no way alter the opinions I have already expressed. I look upon the attitude Lord Delamere took up with regard to this Administration as such to be regretted; but I recognise that no one has done more for East Africa in developing his large estates than anyone else who has interests in the country, and that he is the leader in whom the settlers have the greatest confidence and whom they are prepared to follow. To reinstate him and his colleague now would give general satisfaction, besides removing any impressions that may exist that the Administration is actuated by vindictiveness or is lacking in sympathy with the settlers.

7. I am further anxious to terminate the feeling of anxiety as to how long the present session, with two members for the Opposition short on the Council, is to last, and I think with such an important Bill as the Land Bill coming on for second reading two months

hence

hence there will be a great sense of relief and a feeling that the voice of the Colonists will have been allowed full expression, if the two members are allowed to resume their seats in time to take part in the discussion.

Sir,

I have the honor to see the rest of your despatch No 587 of the 9th of Dec^r and to inform you that, acting upon your strong recommendation and at your especial request,

I have advised HM

to reappoint Lord Delamere

and Mr Baillie to be

Unofficial Members of the Legislative Council, and that HM has been pleased to give directions

for their re-appointment

in that capacity.

I should not have felt justified in tendering

this advice to HM
