Mr. Cantelano

The dft Estimates 1909-10. etc as submitted to Legislative Council (which has some time ago officially) provide £55,525 for the Police - practically the same as last year. They do not include any provision for expense of officers at Dalton under which subhead of 929 appeared last year. I cannot think it would be proper to stop sending the African police officers to the Dublin course as abruptly; it will not be sent to the Dublin collectors, and any action taken in the direction of abolishing the course shall be taken in concert with the African diarists, and they I understand do not consider that there has been sufficient experience of the course to form a verdict as to its value though they have not had any complaints of its being inadequate or unworkable.
