HAND.

Sir,

TO MR. A. V. COBENT.

This gentleman was, I understand, in the service of the Colonial Office about the end of the year 1904, and some enquiries are now being made by me in the public interest regarding his affairs.

I should be obliged if the file relating to Mr Cobent's service (including any letters in his handwriting) could be forwarded to me for my information for the purpose of comparison of handwriting.

I will, of course, undertake the safe custody of the file and its return in due course.

I am,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

W. B. B. B.

Assistant King's Proctor.
