Mr. Stuckey

He is 37. He had blackwater fever in W. Africa, & if transferred to the sea side would have to start at the bottom.
Whether he could be taken back again into the land? I am not clear. His work was well

Dear Sir

When the Hon. Mr. Justice Lushington on application to be transferred from the British West Africa Protectorate, where I am now serving as an Assistant District Commissioner to an appointment in the West Coast of Africa.

I joined the Colonial Service in September 1898 as an Assistant Inspector of the Gold Coast Protectorate, where I served until December 1906, in which month I was transferred to the West Africa Protectorate in view of ill health.

I am now quite strong again and I am very anxious to return to the West Coast, sooner if possible.

As I commenced my Colonial career in the West Coast and although I have endeavored to do my duty conscientiously in the West Africa Protectorate, I feel my heart is not so much in my present post, as in the West Coast.

I am now at home a few months because of illness, and I arrived in England in the 19th inst.

I trust that the Secretary of State for

The Colonies will favourably consider this my application.

Yours truly,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

A. O. Luckman.

Captain.

Assistant District Commissioner.

British East Africa.

The Under Secretary of State for the Colonies
London

Montpellier Terrace, Brighton.

April 24th, 1908.

Sir,

I have the honour to request your permission to be transferred from the British East Africa protectorate, where I am now serving as an Assistant District Commissioner to an appointment in the West Coast of Africa.

I joined the Colonial Service in September
1898 as an Assistant Inspector of the Gold Coast Constabulary, where I served until November 1906, in which month I was transferred to the East Africa Protectorate on account of ill-health.

I am now quite strong again and am very anxious to return to the West Coast Gambia if possible.

As I commenced my colonial career on the West Coast, and although I have endeavoured to perform my duty conscientiously in the East Africa Protectorate, I feel my heart is not so much in the East Africa
the West Coast.

I am now at home on furlough absence, and I arrived in England on the 14th inst.

I trust that the Secretary of State for the Colonies will favourably consider this my application
I have, etc.

(and) A. O. Luckman, Capt.
Under Secretary of State, Asst District Commr British East Africa
Colonial Office.
