I get the that Mrs Fisher has no more relations here who would have some thing or I think we should ask the C.A. to signify of the things, when received a receipt to amount realized

Mr. Lobb

Have the Cloyts agreed to this proposal which seems rather outside their ordinary functions

III 29/3

Mr. Lobb

No, they have not been consulted yet. It seems to me probable that some relation going out on agreement might take over some of the things.

III 1/4

Mr. Reed

I don't think this is a job for the Cloyts. Mrs Fisher can send them to advertise in old clothes.

Dear Sir

Your favour duly to hand. I regret that you cannot dispose of my late brother's effects please send them to Mr. Lewis 124 Great
Portland Street W.
Whom I have instructed to sell them.

Mr. [unclear] replied saying that the things might be sent to Lewis, 124 Grand Portland St. W., with his letter of 9/4
