Copy of extract from a letter from Mr. R. Wyndham to Lord Crewe

Norfolk Hotel, P.O. box 23, Nairobi, B.E.A.

June 15, 1908

Dear Crewe,

I hear that owing to the dishonest practices of the head-gameranger here, Col Patterson, this post is about to become vacant again. I write to do all I can to persuade you to grant this post to A. Percival. He has been gameranger out here for several years now & everyone who knew him thought it very hard on him that Col Patterson was put over his head. Percival has always been very keen & hard working at this job & is in every way qualified for it as he is a great naturalist & is very good on this subject. I apologise for writing this letter to you as you must receive so many of them in your present appointment but I have to write in order to do all I can to further the interests of such an old friend as Percival

 explain satisfactorily any irregularities discovered in my accounts. I am sure there would have been some had I not been compelled to have B. E. A. in such a hurry, prostrated both in mind & body.

Trusting I may have a copy of the report as soon as possible.

I have the honour to be

Sirs

Your most obedient servant
